I have searched online and have been unsuccessful. I have the latest drivers from realtek (newest version) and have tried downloading the ones from soundblaster. I have tried installing/uninstalling pavucontrol (the program i am using to check the audio settings). I have also tried loading the driver through the terminal and restarting with no luck. I have tried both the 32 and 64 bit versions, from what I can tell, it doesn't seem to matter. Does anyone have any ideas? Thanks! A: I have had this issue before and it worked for me. Here's what you do: Download and Install ALSA 1.0.22 from the ALSA site sudo apt-get install alsa-base alsa-utils Download the latest ALSA from the ALSA site (in /var/www/ALSA-1.0.22-0.1-stable.tar.bz2) Extract ALSA to /usr/src and patch it. Follow the instructions on the ALSA wiki. A reboot is required before installing the driver. Debug
